Understanding Each Class

To avoid confusion, anytime I host a conference, I have to list a few rules, guidelines and disclaimers. To make the best use of every class, it is imperative that you familiarize yourself with these principles, otherwise, you'll email me, asking questions that have already been answered. With that being said, please read the following:

1. No refunds for any reason at any time. Even if you don't participate in the classroom or conferences, we will not refund or credit the registration fee.
2. Do not invite anyone onto the call. You can register a friend or family member, but you are prohibited from giving out the call in or login information to anyone. Violators will be removed from the program, denied access to the classroom, and no refund will be issued.
3. All class schedules are subject to change. Should there be a change in the schedule, we will contact you using the email address you've provided. Please check your email regularly.
4. If you're expecting an email from us, but don't see it, please check your spam folder. All too often, we waste 15 minutes emailing back and forth about missing emails when the emails are in the student's spam folder. Before reaching out to us, please check and recheck your spam folder, looking for emails from info@anointedfire.com. Also, if you have multiple emails, check your other emails. You may have registered with a different email.
5. We charge $10 to resend emails.
6. If you have Gold Access and up, it is important to note that you have access to our message board, which is a private group on Facebook. If you do not have a Facebook page or you've deactivated your page, we ask that you create or restore your page if you want to be a part of our Life Prep Community. If you choose not to, please note that we will not email the information to you that is on the message board.
7. If you are a student of LPU only (Silver Access), please note that you do not have access to the message board. We're only reiterating this to ensure that there is no confusion.
8. If you did not register for LPU, but instead, registered for a class, you will not have access to the LPU Library or the message board. You will only be able to access the class that you registered for. Again, this is only to ensure that there are no questions or confusion.
9. Always be respectful at all times.
10. No profanity, hate speech, gossip, slander or derogatory comments will be tolerated.
11. We reserve the right to remove anyone from this program that we deem to be offensive and/or rebellious. In such a case, as with every case, we will not offer a refund or a credit.
12. Please call in at least 5 minutes before each call. If you're unable to make a call, the replay audio or video will be available to you within 48 hours or less.
13. Please ask all questions while on the conference line (if you're registered for a class) or via the message board. No emails or inbox questions. If you want to set up a personal one-on-one coaching session, please note my coaching fees at <http://www.tiffanybuckner.com/coaching/>

14. Please save the call-in information. If we have to resend it, there is a $10 resend fee.
